SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Conductor Fugate and wife are home from a Raton visit.
Mrs. J. J. Sheridan will give an enchilada dinner to her many friends this evening at 6 o'clock.
C. L. Pollard, of Eggs & Pollard, Espanola, returned home this morning from a business trip to this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Deadey, who spent last winter in the city, contemplate returning here from Chicago at an early date.
Mr. and Mrs. Renahan will move from their present home to a newly acquired domicile in the Sena block, Monday.
Mrs. B. Roper, of Alamosa, who has been in the city some days visiting Mrs. Ed Hartman, returned home this morning.
Captain S. S. Mathers will entertain a number of friends at the Claire tonight in honor of the anniversary of his birth.
Chief Justice W. J. Mills is in the city today from Las Vegas on private business. He expects to return home this evening.
Rodney Day, who is connected with the Indian agency at Dulce, returned home from an extended visit in Santa Fe this morning.
Major and Mrs. B. J. Palen and Miss Carol Palen are expected to return from their eastern trip about the middle of the coming week.
Mrs. Thomas Smith, will reach Santa Fe about the 20th of this month, and will remain during the summer, a guest at the sanitarium.
John Walz Catron, eldest son of Hon. T. B. Catron, is home from an extended European trip and will remain here during the summer.
Mrs. Harris, handsome daughter and son, of Leavenworth, Kas., are in the city guests at the sanitarium. They are here for the son's health.
Mrs. E. E. Siegler and Miss Lydia Siegler, of Philadelphia, arrived at the sanitarium last night from Phoenix, A. T., where they spent the winter.
Mrs. Samuel Eldred, wife of the territorial treasurer, will entertain her lady friends at her home on Hillside avenue next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
Hon. Solomon Luna, one of the most progressive and wealthy citizens of the territory, is in the city from Los Lunas, on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Borgere.
Miss Mary LaRue, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. LaRue, of Las Vegas, will pay a visit to the governor and to Mrs. Otero next month and remain here for a few weeks.
Hon. C. F. Easley, who is in Denver, will return to Santa Fe Monday evening. Mrs. Easley and one daughter have gone to Nebraska, where they will visit relatives, also the Omaha exposition before returning.
Hon. L. Bradford Prince returned last evening from a four weeks' visit to the east. Mrs. Prince and son are expected to arrive in Santa Fe from Denver during the latter part of this month to spend the summer.
J. W. Hannon and wife, who spent two years in Santa Fe, reached their home in Boston this week. Mr. Hannon is again chief dispatcher on the Boston & New York railway in Boston.
Captain W. H. H. James leaves the first of the week for Tampa to recruit a regiment, the 24th U. S. Infantry, and tomorrow will give a farewell dinner to a party of gentlemen friends at the Palace hotel.
The impromptu musicale given at the sanitarium Wednesday evening, was pronounced by the attendance, one of the most delightful social events of the week. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Tipton, Mesdames Cole, Schaff and Sugar, Misses Mason, Helen Mason, Morris and Cole. The musical talent displayed was of an admirable character.
Mrs. J. A. LaRue and daughter, Jeanette, who have been guests of the governor and of Mrs. Otero during the past week, return to Las Vegas this evening, having spent a most enjoyable visit here. Mrs. LaRue was the recipient of much social attention and although here but a few days, became very popular and greatly liked by Santa Fe society people.
Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Sheridan, a farewell party was given in honor of Mrs. J. L. Gaylord. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Van Schick, Mr. and Mrs. Foraker, Mr. and Mrs. Renahan, Misses Manger and Gold, Messrs. Collins and Foraker. Music, cards and dancing were indulged in until a late hour.
J. L. Gaylord, who has charge of the Indian agency at Dulce, accompanied by his estimable wife, returned home this morning from a prolonged visit in Santa Fe. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord have received much attention in this city during their stay and have made a host of friends who will look forward with pleasure to their speedy return.
Mrs. J. D. Hughes entertained a few ladies on Friday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Otero and Mrs. Knaebel. Those present were Mrs. Otero, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. LaRue, of Las Vegas, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Rapp, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Gullford, Mrs. Cole, of Chicago, Mrs. Weltmer, Miss Atkinson, Mrs. Knaebel, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Phillip Harrohn, Mrs. Laughlin, Mrs. Thomas.
Mrs. M. A. Otero entertained twice this week at luncheon in her usual exquisite manner, both occasions being given in honor of her guest, Mrs. LaRue; on Wednesday there were present, the guest of honor, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Gullford; the decorations were white and green. At noon today there were present: Mrs. LaRue, Mrs. J. D. Hughes, Mrs. Bergere, Mrs. Rapp, Mrs. P. B. Otero; decorations were roses.
On Thursday afternoon the fifteen club was most hospitably entertained by Mrs. Jackson, who had invited the club by invitation on several occasions. This being an extra session, and the last of the season, the members were privileged to present whatever selections and readings they deemed most appropriate. The result was eminently satisfactory, particularly as regards an original poem on the names of the club members, written by the hostess herself. After greatly enjoying the elegant refreshments, the club adjourned for the vacation.
Elbridge A. Burbank, a Chicago artist of renown, who has been in New Mexico during the past seven months painting Indian characters, went up to Durango this morning. Numerous pictures of Indian life from Mr. Burbank's brush have appeared in the Harper's, Scribner and Munsey magazines in the past, and he is now furnishing McClure's with a few conceptions of a painted in New Mexico, which will appear shortly. Mr. Burbank will return to Santa Fe in a few days and while here will paint the Tesque Indians and scenes about their pueblo.
Some of the old friends of Hon. L. B. Prince presented him a day or two ago with an academic hood belonging to the degree of doctor of law. Governor Prince has been the recipient of the degree of LL. D. from Kenyon college in Ohio, and also from Colorado college at Colorado Springs, and this hood is the appropriate academic ornament to be used on ceremonial occasions, or in connection with commencements, etc., at institutions of learning. The one presented shows the colors of Colorado college, which are black and gold, with the purple facings which represent the legal profession and was manufactured by an authority on such matters in this country.—Flushing, N. Y., Evening Journal.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Victoriana Santistevan, daughter of Hon. Juan Santistevan, the respected and influential banker and merchant of Taos, to Mr. Bernabe Gonzales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose de la Luz Gonzales. The wedding will take place at the parish church in Taos, on Monday, June 26th next. The bride is an accomplished and very charming young lady and the groom is highly respected for his sterling qualities as a man and as a citizen; he is a prosperous business man and has a home in Taos county. The wedding will be a very elegant and comprehensive affair, and the reception will be held at the residence of the fair bride's father in Taos after the ceremony. It promises to be the leading social event of the season in Taos county. The groom is a young man of great promise, prominent in the politics of his section, a successful merchant and sheep raiser and a colonel and aide-de-camp on Governor Otero's staff. He was a member of the 32nd legislative assembly and made an excellent record as such, although he is but 24 years of age today. He has already made a most enviable reputation for himself. He is the son of the late Pedro Ygnacio Jaramillo, in his life time one of the foremost citizens of the territory, and is a nephew of Hon. T. B. Catron, of El Rito, Arizaba county. The wedding will take place in the month of July at the residence of the bride's parents in Taos county.
Mrs. A. A. Keen, wife of the popular cashier of the First National bank at Albuquerque, will be a visitor in Santa Fe the coming week, the guest of the governor and of Mrs. Otero.
Lieut. Herman Hild of the Otero Guard, Las Vegas, son of the jovial merchant prince, Charles Hild, is a guest of his aunt, Mrs. H. Hild, in this city.
Miss Belle Hild, the pretty daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Hild, was the recipient of many congratulations on her recent marriage engagement by her many warm friends in this city during the past week.
Mrs. Schulte, mother-in-law of Hon. T. B. Catron, reached Santa Fe yesterday. She will remain for an indefinite period.
Everything used in making our soda water and syrups is of the best quality that can be bought. Try it and be convinced. Fischer & Co.
Destroyed By Fire.
Fire destroyed the New Mexico saloon owned by Mrs. Henrietta Hild, located on the corner of San Francisco and Bridge streets, this morning. The alarm was sent in at 2 o'clock and before the fire department reached there, the place was a mass of flames. The entire stock was destroyed. Five hundred dollars insurance covers the loss.
Delicious ice cream soda at Fischer's every day.

B. C. Hernandez, a prominent citizen of Lumberton, is an Exchange guest.
Arranging for Normal Institute.
Hon. Manuel C. de Baca, superintendent of public instruction, is endeavoring to arrange for the consolidation of San Miguel, Mora and Guadalupe counties into one normal institute district, for the coming summer, and hold one teacher's institute at some central point for the three counties. If such an arrangement can be made with the county superintendents of the three counties, it is thought much better results can be obtained than if three separate institutes were held.
Driving Sheep South.
Owing to the recent heavy rains and there being plenty of water and grass now on the ranges in the southern part of this county, several herds of sheep numbering in the aggregate about 14,000 head and owned in this city are being driven from the hills and mountains east of the city to the southwestern part of the county.
